City Aide Turns Down ACLU Bid

Jerome I. (Jerry) Scharfman, assistant city manager, will not appear on a panel which will discuss the housing code inspection program in Torrance.

Scharfman told the Press-Herald Friday he had declined the invitation of the South Bay Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union to appear on the panel. The program is to be held next Friday evening at American Savings and Loan, 1959 Kingsdale Ave., Redondo Beach.

A spokesman for the ACLU subsequently issued a statement indicating Scharfman had accepted the invitation to appear.

"I made no such commitment," Scharfman said. "I am not appearing."

HEART SUNDAY TRIO... Leaders for the Heart Sunday campaign in Torrance Sunday are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis of 2366 W. 235th St. They are pictured with Keith Fischel (seated), manager of Imperial Bank. The bank, at Torrance and Hawthorne boulevards, will be the turn-in station for campaign workers during the Heart Sunday fund drive.

Arrestment Delayed in Assault Case

A 58-year-old Torrance man has been given until next Monday to enter a plea to a charge of assaulting a police officer.

William Jennings Bryan Hughes, 1318 Madrid Ave., was granted a one-week continuance Monday when he appeared in Department A of the Southwest Superior Court to be arraigned on the charge.

Hughes is accused of assaulting William E. Bornhoff, a Torrance police officer, last Jan. 30. He was bound over to the Superior Court following a preliminary hearing before Judge Otto B. Willett in South Bay Municipal Court.

Four Men Face New Hearings

Three persons accused of burglary and a fourth accused of receiving stolen property have been bound over to Superior Court on the charges following preliminary hearings in South Bay Municipal Court.

All four have been ordered to appear for arraignment in Department A of the Southwest Superior Court Monday, March 6, at 9 a.m.

Ordered to appear for arraignment on burglary charges were Carl D. Brookshire, 18, of 1341 W. Carson St.; Merwyn A. Sargent, 24, of Harbor City; and Frank R. Millard, also of Harbor City.

Mike R. Parga, 34, of Lawndale, is to be arraigned on suspicion of receiving stolen property.

All four men were arrested by Torrance police as a result of investigations into several burglaries in this area.

Parga and Brookshire are free on bail and Millard and Sargent remain in custody.

Redondo Man Jailed for Auto Theft

A 19-year-old Redondo Beach youth was arrested on suspicion of grand theft auto early Monday morning after he was stopped in Long Beach.

Edward Lee Buchanan, of 810 El Redondo, Redondo Beach, was returned to Torrance about 4 p.m. Monday and booked on the charge at the Torrance City Jail.

Two juveniles also were taken into custody at the same time.

Police said Buchanan was driving an automobile which had been reported stolen when he was stopped by Long Beach police about 3 a.m. Monday.

Directors of United California Bank Monday declared the regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share payable March 30 to shareholders of record March 10.
